

Antarctic Fly In And Explore Expedition

Fly-In Fly-Out Options - Skip Sailing Across The Drake Passage

The best of all worlds – an intimate up-close Antarctica experience on an Expedition Yacht Hans Hansson, combined with the convenience and time-saving travel of Flying across the Drake!

Explore Antarctica on an Expedition Yacht where we will encounter penguin colonies, breaching whales, and leopard Seals. Each day is something new – we take in what Antarctica gives to us, which the flexibility of a small yacht allows us to do. We will visit penguin colonies, watch many types of seals. Explore from eye level with zodiac tours and kayaks.

We will be reminded of the brave souls who have come before us when we see remains of old whaling stations. If we are lucky we may even get to visit an active station while in the peninsula.

No matter what we do and no matter what the weather, your time in Antarctica will be one of a life time. Full of fantastic photos, unforgettable evening zodiac rides through the ice, Sculpted icebergs floating past. It is unlike any other place on the planet.

The Fly in and fly out trips start and end in Punta Arenas, Chile

Fly-In Fly-Out Itinerary

Day 1

Depart from Punta Arenas and fly across the Drake Passage. Join the Expedition sailing yacht at King George Island and start your Antarctic Adventure.

Day 2-11

Explore Antarctica on an Expedition sailing yacht. Each day will be different and can include zodiac tours, landings at penguin colonies, exploring historic scientific bases and whaling sites, kayaking. The flexibility allows you to take full advantage of whatever Antarctica gives to us – be it an incredible southern sunset or a breaching whale. We can stop and enjoy. While South there will be an Active scientist onboard, so all guests are invited to participate in real Antarctic research. In the evenings the scientist will present on their research, as well as pressing current Antarctic issues. The scientist will be a part of the team and ready to answer questions at dinner, or on deck

Day 12

Return to King George Island and board your flight to Punta Arenas. Look out your window and get a last glimpse at the white continent.

Land in Punta Arenas – one of the historic ports of Antarctic explorers past to end your journey like explorers have done for over a century.
